

800 Library Facility

In keeping with being Whistler's community hub and living room, the Library is committed to providing a facility that supports and enhances a sense of community and providing a place where community members can come together.

801 Community Use of the Library

1. When not in use for Library events the main library space, community room, the plaza and the deck are available for events which, in the opinion of the Library Director, are appropriate for the Library.
2. If deemed appropriate, the facility may be used for a fee as long as the use does not interfere with library operations.
3. Any requests requiring library closure need approval of the Board.
4. A Facility Use Request form should be submitted for reservation of library facilities and must be accompanied by the assigned fees.
5. The Library provides a discounted rate for non-profits, as long as no fees are charged to attendees.
6. Refunds will be provided for events cancelled 7 days in advance of the booking date.
7. The Library may limit the number of bookings by any one person or organization.
8. Upon 7 days' notice, an event may be cancelled by the Library.

802 Art & Displays in the Library

1. While donations of art and artifacts are appreciated, the Library has limited space for displays and does not have adequate storage for facilities for art. Offers of donations of art will be referred to other appropriate institutions.
2. Where the work has particular relevance to the Library, the Library Director and Board of Trustees determine what is displayed within the Library.
3. Visual art can significantly enhance the Library's Public space. Periodically the Library will participate in a call for artists in collaboration with area museums, artists and Arts Whistler to display work on a temporary basis.

803 Charitable Donations

1. The Library is pleased to receive donations of money and real property, provided that any conditions attached are acceptable to the Board.
2. The Library Board has complete discretion over allocation of items and funds donated to the Library.
3. Corporate logos or book plates cannot be placed in library materials.
4. The Library is a registered BC charity and can provide tax receipts if requested by a donor.
5. All money donated to the Library will be placed in the Library's charity account.
6. Significant donations supporting specific projects can be acknowledged with a standardized plaque per approval of the Library Director and the Board.

7. The Board of Trustees may directly or indirectly engage in activities to raise funds for the library. Any fundraising activities should be approved by the board.
8. The Board will publically acknowledge funds raised for the benefit of the Library.
