

WHISTLER PUBLIC LIBRARY BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Interested in becoming more involved in your community?

Consider applying to become a Trustee on the Whistler Public Library Board of Trustees!

The Library Board of Trustees is an eleven (11) person volunteer body whose members are appointed by municipal Council.

Pursuant to the Library Act, RSBC 1996, c. 264, ss. 5-6, there are five (5) vacancies available for a two (2) year term effective (January 1, 2018 – December 31, 2019); and one (1) vacancy available for a one (1) year term (January 1, 2018 – December 31, 2018).

Eligibility requirements:

- Must be resident or an elector of the Resort Municipality of Whistler (RMOW).
- Must not be a RMOW employee.
- Must not be a Whistler Public Library employee.

Being a member of the Whistler Public Library Board of Trustees provides several unique opportunities for its members:

An opportunity to serve your community:

- Whistler's Public Library is internationally recognized as a Public Library with strong community engagement. As a Trustee, you will be part of impacting this civic engagement process.
- Trip Advisor ranks our Library as one of the top attractions in Whistler! Enjoy supporting the many activities that contribute to this success. Did you know that often over a thousand people enter the library each day?
- Enjoy participating in advocacy projects for literacy and other library initiatives.

An opportunity to learn more:

- About Whistler, our library and the library trusteeship process.
- About issues relevant to the library community, such as literacy, community engagement, fundraising and advocacy.
- About being a Trustee through a Trustee Orientation Program provided by the B.C. Library Trustees Association, attendance at provincial or national library conferences and through participation in the work of the Board.

A great opportunity to meet new people:

- Library staff and Board Trustees are committed, enthusiastic and knowledgeable people from wonderfully varied backgrounds.
- "Library fans" are everywhere and you'll meet them when you represent the Library at community events.
